Keeps Out of Fight

Roosevelt Refuses to Scrap for Delegates to G. O. P. Convention.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., March 28.—Colonel Roosevelt has declined to engage in the scramble for the presidential delegates from Massachusetts, Charles Sumner Bird, former head of the Progressives in the bay state, tried to induce the colonel to head his support in the "Roosevelt big four" slate in opposition to the regular Republican ticket, but the colonel stood on his Trinidad shingle.

The meaning is that Colonel Roosevelt is still insisting that in the sense of fighting for delegates he is not a candidate for the presidency.

COME TO GET POINTERS

Committee of Minneapolis Citizens Is Looking Over Topeka.

A committee, composed of citizens and councilmen from Minneapolis, Kan., came to Topeka a visit today to investigate the method of paving. While in the city, the committee was piloted about the city and shown the method employed and the various materials used by the street department in its work by Commissioner Tandy.

Minneapolis is about to embark on street paving and before definite plans are taken, or any money spent by the city, it is determined to get the best materials and methods available. Several checks are to be paid there this summer.

The committee is composed of the following citizens of that city: Alford Bradley, Henry Hahn, E. C. Woodward, J. W. Smith and S. E. Jackson. All expressed themselves as highly pleased at the cordial reception given them while in Topeka by city officials and also stated that they found the street paving conditions here excellent.

Manhattan, Junction City and Abilene have been visited and it is the intention of the committee, before returning home, to visit Emporia, Newton and Hutchinson.

ASSAIL HER REPUTATION

Other Men Named at Millionaire's Trial for White Slavery.

Chicago, March 28.—The trial of William Rufus Edwards, wealthy St. Paul lumberman, on charges of violation of the Mann act, was resumed here today with the reading of letters from Miss Ada Cox to the defendant yesterday by attorneys for Edwards.

Miss Cox was the only witness yesterday. Her testimony began after Federal Judge A. S. Anderson had ruled that the past lives of Miss Cox and Edwards might be fully inquired into during the trial. Miss Cox's testimony dealt for the most part with the trip she said she made with Edwards to St. Paul and other places across state lines.

Attorneys for the defendant by questioning Miss Cox sought to show that she had had illegal relations with other men and the names of John Gansel, a ball player, a "bookie agent named Nash," W. H. Meers of Indianapolis, and W. G. Carmichael, Milwaukee, were brought into the record. Miss Cox testified that her relations with these men had never exceeded the bounds of morality.

Americans Off to Asia to Catch Zoology's "Flying Dutchman."

San Francisco, March 28.—A quest of the "blue tiger," a beast which has been termed, "The Flying Dutchman" of zoology, because many scientists and explorers have seen it yet one has never been caught, was to begin today when Roy Chapman Andrews and Mrs. Andrews sail from San Francisco for the Orient on the liner Tani Maru.

As they sail in central Asia or Tibet they expect to capture a specimen of the animal and to make an exhaustive study of zoology for the American museum of natural history at New York of which Andrews is assistant curator.

At Yuchow, Edmund Heller, formerly of Stanford university, will join the party. Heller was with Theodore Roosevelt on his African big game hunt and has explored the remote provinces of China.
